1 About NESS Super

NESS Super was established in 1987 as an industry superannuation fund dedicated to providing retirement and other services to employees and employers in the electrotechnology industry.

We offer two products – a superannuation plan to save for your retirement and a pension plan for retirement or transitioning to retirement. We offer a MySuper product (NESS MySuper) if you do not want to make decisions about your pre-retirement superannuation and 7 investment choices and other insurance choices if you do.

NESS Super is a Public Offer Fund and we can also accept self-employed contractors who are not in receipt of an employer contribution. NESS Super is also an authorised 'MySuper' product provider so we can accept Superannuation Guarantee (SG) Contributions from your Employer. Spouses of current NESS Super members can also join NESS Super.

Our philosophy

At NESS Super, our focus is on providing employers and members with simple, yet comprehensive super. As a fund that exists solely to service the electrotechnology industry, we concentrate on providing the greatest possible value to our employers and members. We do this by offering competitive investment returns, and efficient online solutions, while keeping fees low.

And, most importantly, we don't spend our members' money on unnecessary advertising and sponsorships.

What sets us apart is our commitment to personalised service and a simple, easy to understand, low cost structure. As an industry super fund we exist only to benefit members, not shareholders. We also do not pay agents commissions. You can find further information about NESS Super including the NESS Super product dashboard (in the Investments section), trustee and executive remuneration and other Fund documents at www.nesssuper.com.au.

2 How super works

Superannuation is money you save and invest for your retirement. Superannuation is partly compulsory.

The building blocks of super are:

Contributions

- Employer contributions
- Member contributions
- Government co-contributions (if eligible)
- Rollover amounts

Net investment returns (if positive)

Amounts deducted

- Fees and charges
- Insurance premiums
- Government taxes
- Net investment returns (if negative)
- Payments approved by you

Contributing to super

Contributions made by your employer

In most cases, Superannuation Guarantee law requires your employer to contribute 9.5%* of your ordinary time earnings to a superannuation fund. This is compulsory. When you join NESS Super, these contributions are credited to your account.

* The SG has been frozen at 9.5% until 1/7/2021 when it will increase to 10%. The SG rate will then increase by 0.5% each year until 1/7/2025 when it will reach 12%.

Contributions made by you

You can choose to contribute to your NESS Super account to supplement contributions made by your employer. This is not compulsory. Making member contributions is an effective way to boost your super and build your retirement savings.

Member contributions can be made from your after-tax pay or from your pre-tax pay (this is called salary sacrifice). Salary sacrifice contributions may reduce the amount of personal income tax you pay.

There are significant tax consequences if your contributions exceed contribution limits

Pre-tax contributions: for the 2016/17 year, the limit on total before-tax contributions (made by your employer and by salary sacrifice) for individuals aged under 50 is $30,000 each year. For individuals aged 50 and over, the limit is $35,000 per year.

After-tax contributions: for the 2016/17 financial year, if you are under 65 at the start of the financial year, the limit on your after-tax contributions is $180,000 each year or $540,000 in advance for three years.

As part of the 2016 Federal Budget, the government has introduced a $500,000 lifetime non-concessional contribution cap. If legislated, this measure would apply from 7:30pm 3 May 2016 (Budget night). The lifetime cap is proposed to include all non-concessional contributions made from 1 July 2007. However contributions made prior to Budget night will not result in an excess. This announcement is a proposal only and is not yet law as at the time this document was prepared.

Please refer to www.ato.gov.au for the latest information on tax contributions.

Government co-contribution

For each $1 an eligible person contributes from after-tax pay, the Government will pay a co-contribution of up to 50% to a maximum of $500 p.a. To be eligible for the full co-contribution, your taxable income must be $36,021* p.a. or less. But you can still get some of the co-contribution from the Government if your taxable income is less than $51,021* p.a. For full details of current eligibility conditions call the Australian Taxation Office on 13 10 20 or visit www.ato.gov.au/super.

*Applies for the 2016/17 tax year.

Rollovers

If you have super in other funds, you can consolidate them in your NESS Super account. That way you'll have all your super together and may pay less in fees.

We can help you with this. Just call us on 1800 022 067 or simply log into MemberAccess. Before closing your other super account you should consider whether any exit fees or taxes apply and the effect on your insurance cover. You may also be able to transfer your insurance to NESS Super.

For more information on how super works visit www.moneysmart.gov.au.

Where you put your super is almost always your choice

Most people have the right to choose the fund their employer pays their SG contributions into. To find out if you are eligible for Choice of Fund, speak to your employer or contact us.

For more information visit www.ato.gov.au/super.

Super is there for your retirement – it attracts generous tax savings

Because the Government wants to encourage everyone to save for retirement, it provides tax incentives for money invested in super. Since the purpose of super is to help you build up retirement savings, you generally cannot withdraw your money from super until you retire permanently from the workforce after you have reached your preservation age, or meet certain conditions of release. Your preservation age depends on when you were born. For example, if you were born after 1 July 1964, your preservation age is 60. Once you are 60 and retired, your money can be taken out of super tax-free as a pension or lump sum. For more about taxation see page 6.

3 Benefits of investing with NESS Super

4 Risks of super

All investments carry risk. There are a number of risks associated with investing in super that you should consider.

- The value of the investment option/s you choose will vary and may fall. The Fund's investment performance is not guaranteed, which means you may lose some of your money.
- The level of return for each of the Fund's investment options will vary, so future returns may differ from past returns.
- Different strategies carry different levels of risk, depending on the assets that make up the strategy. Assets with the highest potential long-term returns may also carry the highest level of short-term risk. For more about NESS Super's investment options, how NESS MySuper option is invested and the associated level of risk for NESS MySuper option, see page 4.
- Laws affecting super (such as superannuation laws, taxation and social security) may change in the future.
- The amount of future superannuation savings (including contributions and returns) may not be enough to provide adequately for your retirement.
- There is a possibility that your employer may decide to cease or reduce its contributions to NESS Super.
- As a member of NESS Super, you will incur various fees and costs depending on the investment options you select. There is a risk that these fees and costs will increase from time to time, which may affect your super account balance. You'll be provided with 30 days' written notice of any such increases.

It is important to know the facts about risk and return before investing your super. The level of risk that is appropriate for you will vary depending on a range of factors including age, investment time frame, other investments you have and your own personal risk tolerance. If you don't have the time to ride out ups and downs in your return, you may not be comfortable with a higher risk option.

The link between risk and return

Generally, investment in high risk assets will produce higher returns over the long term, with a greater chance of a negative return over the short term.

Each of the four main asset classes – shares, property, fixed interest and cash – have different levels of risk and different potential for returns.

5 How we invest your money

NESS Super currently gives you a choice of seven (7) investment options

- Cash
- Stable
- NESS MySuper (formerly the Balanced option)
- Property
- High Growth
- Australian Shares
- International Shares

You can choose to invest in one option or in any combination of options. If you do not make a choice, your money will be invested in the default NESS MySuper option.

When making your investment choice you must consider the likely investment return, the level of risk and your own personal investment timeframe.

NESS MySuper (default option)

Investor profile

This investment option seeks growth above inflation over the medium term. It is likely to suit members seeking mid to long-term growth of their superannuation with moderate risk.

Investment objective

To achieve a return after fees and tax over rolling ten-year periods of at least 3% p.a. above inflation, as measured by the CPI.

Investment strategy

Between 60% and 80% invested in a range of Australian and international shares, growth alternatives and property, with the balance in diversified fixed interest, defensive alternatives and cash.

Investment timeframe

Suitable for members seeking a diversified investment over a broad range of asset classes, in order to achieve higher capital growth in the medium term with a moderate level of risk.

Standard Risk Measure*

Risk Band:	5
Risk Label:	Medium to high
Estimated number of negative annual returns over any 20 year period:	3.8

* The Standard Risk Measure is based on industry guidance to allow members to compare investment options that are expected to deliver a similar number of negative annual returns over any 20-year period. The Standard Risk Measure is not a complete assessment of all forms of investment risk, for instance it does not detail what the size of a negative return could be or the potential for a positive return to be less than a member may require to meet their objectives. Further, it does not take into account the impact of administration fees and tax on the likelihood of a negative return. Members should still ensure they are comfortable with the risks and potential losses associated with their chosen investment option/s.

Long-term benchmark asset allocation and ranges

Asset class	Target	Range
Australian Shares	30%	15% – 40%
International Shares	25%	10% – 35%
Growth Alternatives	5%	0% – 15%
Defensive Alternatives	8%	0% – 15%
Cash	7%	0% – 20%
Property	10%	0% – 30%
Fixed Interest	15%	5% – 30%

NESS Super reserves the right to change its default investment option or any of its other investment options, including the types of investments and investment allocations within an option.

i You should read the important information about NESS Super's other six investment options before making a decision. Go to "More about NESS Super" available at www.nesssuper.com.au. The material relating to NESS Super's other six investment options may change between the time when you read this statement and the day when you acquire the product.

How to make or change your investment choice/s

When joining NESS Super, complete the Application for Membership Form accompanying this PDS to indicate your investment choice.

You can choose to switch investment options at any time, as long as your account balance is at least $1,000. Switches are free.

You can switch:

- your total super account balance into one or more options, or
- into separate investment options for your current account balance and your future contributions.

You can change your Investment Option either:

- Electronically through Member Access. If we receive your electronic notification by 11.59 pm (Sydney Australia time) on a Monday, the investment switch will become effective on the following Thursday. To register for Member Access go to www.nesssuper.com.au and follow the prompts; or

If we receive your completed form by mail by 5.00 pm (Sydney Australia time) on a Monday, the investment switch will become effective on the following Thursday. Please note that if the Monday is a public holiday, the form must be received by 5.00 pm (Sydney Australia time) on the last business day prior to the Monday to be effective on the following Thursday.

Socially responsible investing (SRI)

When making investment decisions, the Trustee does not take into account social, ethical or environmental considerations or labour standards. Individual investment managers of SRI options may take into account social, ethical or environmental considerations or labour standards.

When choosing an investment option, you must consider the likely investment return, the risk and your timeframe to retirement.

6 Fees and costs

Did you know?

Small differences in both investment performance and fees and costs can have a substantial impact on your long-term returns. For example, total annual fees and costs of 2% of your fund balance rather than 1% could reduce your final return by up to 20% over a 30 year period (for example, reduce it from $100,000 to $80,000). You should consider whether features such as superior investment performance or the provision of better member services justify higher fees and costs. Your Employer may be able to negotiate to pay lower administration fees. Ask the fund or your financial adviser.

To find out more

If you would like to find out more, or see the impact of the fees based on your own circumstances, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) website www.moneysmart.gov.au has a superannuation fee calculator to help you check out different fee options.*

* Please note that the wording in the box is required by legislation. As NESS Super only charges fees to cover costs, you are unable to negotiate the fees in this PDS.

Members will be notified of any changes to the fees charged at least 30 days prior to the implementation of any increase in fees. NESS Super may change investment fees and costs at any time without members' consent. Investment management fees will vary from year to year depending on the total amount of funds under management in each option and the investment performance of each option.

Investment Performance fees

Investment performance fees are a component of the Investment fee outlined above. Investment performance fees may be paid where an investment manager outperforms a predetermined investment benchmark. The level of Investment performance fees varies each year depending on the performance of the investment manager relative to this benchmark. Based on our assumptions we estimate the Investment performance fee to be up to 0.08%. This estimate of 0.08% has been included in the Investment fee.

7 How super is taxed

Superannuation may be taxed:

- When contributions are made
- On investment earnings

Tax on benefits – a general guide

Tax on benefits is a complex topic. We recommend you discuss your own personal situation with a licensed financial adviser, as the decisions you make about how and when to take your benefit can affect the tax payable and your age pension entitlements. For up-to-date tax information, visit www.ato.gov.au or call the ATO on 13 10 20.

- If you are under preservation age, the entire taxable component of your benefit will be taxed at 22%, including the Medicare levy.
- If the benefit relates to Terminal Illness, your benefit is tax free.

Temporary Salary Continuance

Temporary Salary Continuance benefits are taxed at your marginal rate.

Tax deductions – Self Employed members

If you are self-employed or mainly self-employed, you may be able to claim your personal contributions for the year as a full tax deduction. To claim the deduction, you must notify NESS Super on the ATO's NAT 71121 form available on our website www.nesssuper.com.au before the earlier of withdrawing any super or lodging your tax return before the end of the financial year after you made the contribution. You will need a letter from NESS Super confirming your ATO form has been received before you can claim the deduction in your tax return. The amount you claim will then be taxed at 15% in the fund.

Don't pay more tax than you have to. Provide your Tax File Number (TFN)!

Providing your TFN to NESS Super is not compulsory. However, if you do not provide your TFN, employer and salary sacrifice contributions will be taxed at your top marginal rate. Personal member contributions cannot be accepted at all without a TFN.
