Remuneration of Directors and Executive Officers

The Board has implemented a process for the periodic review and evaluation of its performance and the performance of its committees, individual Directors and Executive Officers. Director remuneration consists of Board and committee fees, superannuation guarantee contributions and the reimbursement of reasonable expenses. The fees reflect the demands on and responsibilities of those Directors. Directors are reimbursed for reasonable expenses in addition to the director fees disclosed in the remuneration tables. NESS Super does not compensate any of its Directors and Executive Officers through the provision of share-base payments including options, rights and equity instruments. Retiring Allowances are also not paid to Directors upon the cessation of their services.

Executive Officers' remuneration comprises salaries, superannuation guarantee contributions and the reimbursement of reasonable expenses. The Chief Executive Officer, in conjunction with the Remuneration Committee, is responsible for determining the remuneration of Executive Officers. The Remuneration Committee reviews the Chief Executive Officer's remuneration. The Remuneration Committee makes recommendations to the Board for its approval.

Director and Executive Officer remuneration, including the Chief Executive Officer's and the Business Development Manager, is reviewed at least annually. Remuneration levels are benchmarked against independent external sources. The Directors and Executive Officers are paid in accordance with the remuneration policy. In the case of Directors, fees may be paid to the Director, paid to the employer of the Director or salary sacrificed as superannuation contributions. Executive Officers are reimbursed for reasonable expenses in addition to the remuneration disclosed in the remuneration tables.

Terms of employment and remuneration are reflected in individual contracts with each Executive Officer. Contracts are entered into on commencement in the position as an Executive Officer with NESS Super.

NESS Super does not provide performance-based remuneration. On an ad hoc basis employees of the Trustee may receive an annual salary supplement at the discretion of the Board. Such payments are based on the employees' overall performance and are not aligned to specific metrics or key performance indicators. The Trustee has no obligation to make such payments regardless of any employee's performance. These payments do not constitute performance-based pay.

Payments made to Executive officers for the previous three years which have been included in the disclosures in the following tables have been:
