3. Changes to your lump sum beneficiaries (If you have more than 4, please photocopy this form)

Important Note: Your preferred beneficiary nominations do not bind NESS Super in any way. This means, although your nomination will be taken into consideration, NESS Super has absolute discretion in determining how to distribute your NESS Pension Account and to whom. If you have or would like to make the nominations binding on NESS Super, you should refer to the rules applicable to Binding Death Benefit Nominations and complete a NESS Pension Binding Death Benefit Nomination form. This can be viewed at www.nesssuper.com.au. If you would like to make your nominations binding for NESS Super, please complete a Binding Death Benefit Nomination Form available at www.nesssuper.com.au.

A lump sum beneficiary can only be nominated if a reversionary pensioner has not been chosen.

I wish to nominate the following person(s) and/or Legal Personal Representative, to receive my NESS Pension Account and related benefit(s) (if any) in the event of my death. A nominated beneficiary can only be your spouse (including de facto or same sex), child (including adopted or step children), financial dependant, interdependant, or legal personal representative (your estate). If you nominate your legal personal representative, you should enter "legal personal representative" in the relationship field.

Certification of personal documents

All copied pages of ORIGINAL proof of identification documents (including any linking documents) need to be certified as true copies by any individual approved to do so (see below).

The following can certify copies of the originals as true and correct copies:

- a permanent employee of Australia Post with five or more years of continuous service
- a finance company officer with five or more years of continuous service (with one or more finance companies)
- an officer with, or authorised representative of, a holder of an Australian Financial Services Licence (AFSL), having five or more years of continuous service with one or more licensees
- a notary public officer
- a police officer
- a registrar or deputy registrar of a court
- a Justice of the Peace
- a person enrolled on the roll of a State or Territory Supreme Court or the High Court of Australia as a legal practitioner
- an Australian consular officer or an Australian diplomatic officer
- a judge of a court
- a magistrate, or
- a Chief Executive Officer of a Commonwealth court.

Have you changed your name or are you signing on behalf of another person?

If you have changed your name or are signing on behalf of the applicant, you will need to provide a certified linking document. A linking document is a document that proves a relationship exists between two (or more) names.

The following table contains information about suitable linking documents.

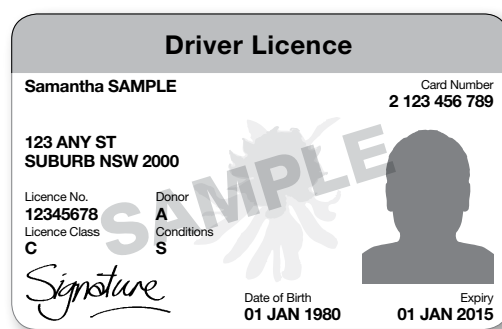

Purpose	Suitable linking documents
Change of name	Marriage certificate, deed poll or change of name certificate from the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Office
Signed on behalf of the applicant	Guardianship papers or Power of Attorney

Example of how to certify identification

- 1 Take a photocopy of both sides of the original document (see list of documents left).
- 2 Take the photocopy and the original document(s) to an authorised person.
- 3 The authorised person should state on the front side of each copy: 'This is a true and correct copy of the original.'

The authorised person should write on each copy their:

- full name;
- qualification (from list above);
- registration number (if applicable);
- date; and
- signature.

This is a true and correct copy of the original
