Important Note: Your preferred beneficiary nominations do not bind NESS Super in any way. This means, although your nomination will be taken into consideration, NESS Super has absolute discretion in determining how to distribute your NESS Pension Account and to whom. If you have or would like to make the nominations binding on NESS Super, you should refer to the rules applicable to binding death benefit nominations and complete a NESS Pension Binding Death Benefit Nomination form. This can be found at www.nesssuper.com.au.

I wish to nominate the following person(s) and/or legal personal representative, to receive my NESS Pension account and related benefit(s) (if any) in the event of my death. A nominated beneficiary can only be your spouse (including de facto or same sex), child (including adopted or step children), financial dependant, interdependant, or legal personal representative (your estate). If you nominate your legal personal representative, you should enter "LPR" in the Relationship to you field.

- a magistrate, or
- a Chief Executive Officer of a Commonwealth court.

Have you changed your name or are you signing on behalf of another person?

If you have changed your name or are signing on behalf of the applicant, you will need to provide a certified linking document. A linking document is a document that proves a relationship exists between two (or more) names. The following table contains information about suitable linking documents.

Purpose	Suitable linking documents
Change of name	Marriage certificate, deed poll or change of name certificate from the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Office
Signed on behalf of the applicant	Guardianship papers or Power of Attorney

Providing proof of identity

Suitable documents you can use include ONE of the following (both sides of two-sided documents must be provided):

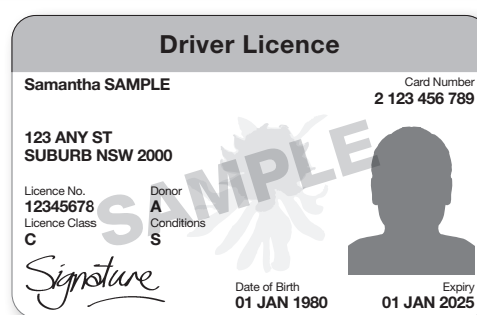

- Current Australian Driver's license
- Valid Australian Passport
- Birth Certificate
- Proof of Age card
- Centrelink pension card
- Citizenship certificate
- Foreign passport - A current passport issued by another country, with a valid entry stamp or visa

Example of how to certify identification

- 1 Take a photocopy of both sides of the original document
- 2 Take the photocopy and the original document(s) to an authorised person.
- 3 The authorised person should state on the front side of each copy: 'This is a true and correct copy of the original.'

The authorised person should write on each copy their:

- full name;
- qualification;
- registration number (if applicable);
- date; and
- signature.

This is a true and correct copy of the original
